TODAY there will, as usual, be coffee, tea etc. in the Church Hall after Mass and we hope you will be able to stay. As is our usual custom, both the morning masses will be of Our Lady of the Rosary, but with the readings of the Sunday.

NEXT SUNDAY our Bishop will be with us to celebrate both of the morning Masses: we are grateful to him for finding the time to come so early during the Interregnum, particularly as he will be here for the 173rd Feast of Dedication at Holy Trinity.

DURING THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY there will, when possible, be a Decade of the Rosary at the Shrine of Our Lady after each of the weekday masses.

VERY MANY THANKS As I write this, I am still surrounded by boxes and have no idea where anything is. I am very grateful to those who have helped me to sort the accumulation of the past 35 years on Monday and Tuesday this week and to Lesley for organising and overseeing the collection of furniture etc. from the Presbytery by those who had asked for it. I had not realised that I had kept so much. But I am also surrounded by hundreds of prayers and good wishes which have supported me through it all. Many thanks for the beautiful parish card which I received last week and for all that you say in it, also for the myriad of presents, cards and good wishes which were showered upon me. As I have often said, I do not deserve them. Now the life of the Parish continues, so that you are all ready to greet and support the new Parish Priest when he is appointed and to be here for the Masses during the Interregnum which our kind and faithful priests are making such an effort to maintain.

AS FROM THIS POINT Fr Graeme's address is 45 Hollingbury Rise, Brighton BN1 7HH (Tel: 01273 551059) and his e-mail will remain the same as above. The answering machine in the Presbytery will be regularly monitored and messages will be passed on. Fr Matthew can be reached on mgburridge@doctors.org.uk
